Internet Porn Addiction & its Cures

[A+] [A-]

In the Name of Allâh, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful

Viewers Discretion is Advised! - Due to the Nature of this Topic this lecture is Not Suitable for Young Viewers. The staggering size of the pornography industry, its influence upon the media and the acceleration of technology, paired with the accessibility, anonymity, and affordability of porn all contribute to its increasing impact.

A wave of porn plague sweeps throughout the world affecting people from all walks of life creating havoc to almost everyone who sees it, with over 75 million porn addicts worldwide and growing fast, it has also reached the Muslim world. Porn Addiction has destroyed family's and society's. Not only is porn addiction a health issue, New research shows that porn has a devastating effect on the brain.

Shocking statistics show how a whole new society of problems has caused this growing world epidemic that has been blamed for high rates of divorce, child molestation, increase of rape cases and abuse against women and children.

So what can we do to prevent this? Or if you are effected by it how can you stop?

Brother Alyas talks about internet porn addiction its adverse effects and how to deal with it from an Islamic prospective. Creating Awareness of this problem.

Surf Safely!

This website is not accessible.

The site you are trying to access contains content that is prohibited for viewership from within Pakistan.

Bookmark Print